

THE CORNELL CLUB - NEW YORK

THE CLUB

QUARTERLY
WINTER 2023

6 EAST 44th STREET NEW YORK, NY 10017 212.986.0300 www.cornellclubnyc.com

Dear Members,

I hope you enjoyed a happy and healthy holiday season. With the start of the new year and the third quarter of our fiscal year, your membership statement will arrive via mail/email. As many of you know, the past few years have been a challenge for The Club. Thankfully, each quarter sees continued growth and improvement. The Board of Directors along with club management work to remain good stewards of The Club and identify areas where we can lower expenses.

One area is credit card fees. These fees amount to one of our largest expense line items – expenses which benefit neither The Club nor the Member.

We do offer alternative methods of payment that would help us avoid credit card fees. I encourage you to consider submitting dues and house payments via one of the convenient options suggested here:

1. Check
2. ACH payment
3. Bill Pay

To learn more about the payment methods listed above, please contact our accounting department:

Michelle Northrup at (212) 692-1371 or M.Northrup@cornellclubnyc.com

Wanda Myra at (212) 692-1374 or W.Myra@cornellclubnyc.com

Thank you for your consideration.
Wishing you a very happy new year.

Regards,
Jack Neafsey
Board Chairman

BREAKFAST CLUB

The Breakfast Club is marking its 17th year at The Club. That calls for a celebration and an invitation for you to participate! The Breakfast Club has long offered Members an opportunity to make the most of each session, sharing ideas and developing long term business and personal relationships. The Club maintained its mission throughout the past two year of staying connected via Zoom, and now we are excited to be back in person again. We will include a couple of virtual events each year to maintain our connection to those who have joined us from around the world.

We decided to mix things up a bit this quarter and hope you'll join us!

JANUARY: VIRTUAL

Grab your coffee or evening cocktail as the Breakfast Club will be virtual bringing members together from around the world.

FEBRUARY: IN-PERSON

Join us here at The Club for meaningful in-person connection. And your time at The Club is only getting started. Plan to make a day of it—work in one of our informal work spaces (which now includes the Big Red Tap & Grill), grab a work out in the Fitness Center, and reconnect with clients for lunch or drinks.

MARCH: IN-PERSON

Breakfast for Dinner! Our March session will have a more social element as we come together for an evening reception with drinks and hors d'oeuvres. Our Food and Beverage team will have fun with this menu!

What exactly is the Breakfast Club?

The Breakfast Club is a monthly meeting where Members discuss interesting topics, recharge yourself with ideas and connections and meet fellow members. Discussions range from business challenges, news of the day, career advice, the economy, and more. Attendees are welcome to submit topic ideas in advance.

Meet Leslie Nydick '85—founder and facilitator of the Breakfast Club. Leslie is a long time member of The Cornell Club, has served on The Club's Board, and is an alumni leader. Her business is focused on Conflict Management. Leslie helps businesses, teams and leaders get unstuck from conflict. She has extensive experience as a mediator, arbitrator, trainer, coach and consultant.

FEATURES

Happy New Year!

I hope you enjoyed the holiday season with friends and family. 2022 is in the rearview mirror, and it was a year marked with growth across all areas of The Club. Our private event rooms were the site of colleagues coming back together and social events marking memorable celebrations. The Club's overnight guest rooms were bustling with a welcome return of the business traveler and tourist alike! Our seasonal menus were complemented with two special nights of dining—lobster night and steak night. As many of you know, The Big Red Tap & Grill is the go-to destination for both informal work and relaxation before drinks and dining commence at 4pm.

We welcomed an influx of new Members, a bright start for our recent graduates, and a welcome return of Members who reinstated their membership. It's a pleasure to welcome you (or welcome you back!). Together, let's make 2023 a year to remember at The Cornell Club-New York!

Thank you to everyone for your kind words of support, positive feedback, and business referrals throughout the year. To those that made a donation to the staff's holiday fund, I extend the thanks and appreciation of my colleagues.

While many of our Members are here in Metro NY, you'll find Cornell Club Members around the world. We are proud to be your home in NYC.

Sincerely,
Craig Lasnier

AN EVENING WITH THE CORNELL HANGOVERS

The Cornell Hangovers are coming back to Manhattan for their pre-tour performance; enjoy a cash bar and performance at The Cornell Club-New York! Founded in 1968, The Hangovers are the official a cappella subset of the Cornell University Glee Club, and one of the few all male a cappella groups on Cornell's campus. The Hangovers sing a wide variety of musical styles including jazz, pop, traditional choral, as well as several original compositions and parodies. All of their arrangements are created by current members and alumni of the group, and the group is entirely student run. The Hangovers frequently perform on campus, in the surrounding areas, and even internationally. The Hangovers are often called upon to sing at student functions, weddings, charity concerts, corporate meetings, and even marriage proposals! Support The Hangovers via their donation page or Venmo.

6:00pm Cash Bar Reception; 6:30pm-7:30pm performance, gratis. Advance reservations required by Friday, January 6th.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 10th

HOW TO WRITE AN EXECUTIVE RESUME TO LAND 6-FIGURE JOB INTERVIEWS

WITH LISA RANGEL '92

Ensure that your resume catches the attention of key decision makers to generate interviews for the senior-level jobs you want. Make 2023 your year!

During this Executive Resume Writing Master Class, Lisa Rangel '92 will be sharing concrete, constructive, and actionable feedback on how to fix common resume mistakes...

What words to use to present yourself effectively, do your resume can do better than it has up until now.

How to make your resume achievement-driven, which delivers the results you offer straight into the recruiter's hands.

How to structure your resume, taking into account what kind of information recruiters want to find and where.

She understands how recruiters and hiring managers read resumes and how they choose resumes of candidates to interview. If you want to land interviews, you need to know how resumes work effectively in the job search process. Lisa will show you and you will walk away with this knowledge from this session.

BUILDING BACKWARDS TO BIOTECH WITH STEPHANIE WISNER

Ever wondered how research makes it out of the lab and to patients? Start-ups, entrepreneurship, and biotechnology are proven tracks for bringing novel science from the bench and to the market, where it has the potential to impact people's health and lives for the better. Join alumna Stephanie Wisner A&S '16 Chemistry, who will share her findings from industry experts that she recently published in her new book, Building Backwards to Biotech: The Power of Entrepreneurship to Drive Cutting Edge Science to Market. Wisner will discuss her career path from scientist to biotech cofounder, as well as the methods you need to understand in order to start your own start-up or understand the exciting emerging industry of biotech. Alumna Ilana Kotliar A&S '18 Chemistry, PhD candidate at The Rockefeller University, will discuss the "cutting-edge" scientific technologies we are seeing in the lab and why they have the potential to transform patient lives through entrepreneurship and biotech. Bring your questions, and get a chance to win a free book, signed by the author.

Visit our website to read Stephanie's bio.

SATURDAY,
JANUARY 28th

THE SECRETS OF GRAND CENTRAL TOUR

The commuter day is so hectic, that few New Yorkers rushing through Grand Central ever really get to learn about the hidden history and lesser-known lore behind this classic landmark. Here's your chance as we celebrate Grand Central with a discussion of the symbolism behind its decor and the mysteries behind this Beaux Arts gem. Stops include Grand Central's "whispering arch"; Vanderbilt Hall; a secret apartment used as a speakeasy during the 1920s; the classic ceiling mural with its mysterious constellations painted in reverse; and Jules Coutan's Roman group god sculpture -- a crowning masterpiece to the structure.

1:45pm tour. $30 per person. Advance reservations required by Thursday, January 26th at which time they are considered final sale. Participants should be fully vaccinated and mask wearing is encouraged. The group will meet in lobby of The Cornell Club-New York.

Please visit the club program calendar on the Club Programs Page of our website for our full list of offerings.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22nd

PLAN TO MEET EARLY EVENING - DETAILS COMING SOON

WHAT'S BETWEEN A BOOK CLUB AND A SEMINAR? WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR NEW GROUP OF LITERARY ENTHUSIASTS AND FIND OUT!

The Seminar Book Club will meet once a month in the Big Red Tap and Grill. Serious fiction or non-fiction, both classics and newer works, will be chosen for literary and intellectual merit. Each book will be chosen by a "seminar leader" who will then lead the discussion.

Meenakshi Chakraverti, Club member and Cornell PhD in social anthropology, will play the role of seminar leader for the first book or two. Once the book club gets going, she would welcome volunteers to take on the role of seminar leader for further books and discussions. The seminar leader will prepare to lead and deepen a discussion, and is invited to send additional articles that raise good questions or provide additional perspectives on the material of the book.

Plan to meet up in the Big Red Tap & Grill, get a drink (and some food if you want!), and talk about the book, pushing both intellectual inquiry and having fun!

For February 2023, Meenakshi has selected: The Swerve (2011) by Stephen Greenblatt (Winner of the National Book Award and the Pulitzer Prize)

Event Spaces are available in 2023!

The Club is the perfect place to host a meeting, private dinner, or event and impress your guests this year.

Please reach out to Danielle Salera for more information, availability, and menus at D.Salera@cornellclubnyc.com or 212.692.1376.
